PRESIDENT'S REPORT

At Hello Members

Would you believe the first half of the year is over already and the 'cold air mass' days have arrived and the winds are coming. The morning teas and dine outs continue whilst the 2nd Friday movie goesers and Bikers are enjoying their sport.

The outing this month, to the Fire Museum was, very informative, with an enjoyable lunch at The Brighton Beach Hotel on the way home. Looking forward, tickets are available for Pretty Woman and please express your possible interest in Mrs Doubtfire, the Musical.

Be sure to call or message Michelle, our welfare officer, if you know of anyone that is unwell. Keep warm, take care and enjoy yourselves

Cheers, Paul

August 2026

Don Jones. Entertainer, who worked at the Tivoli and John Hancocks.

Michelle Franks 0448412008

Please advise Michelle if you are aware of anyone in ill health

Hopefully the couple of people who've had colds are now back enjoying activities again.
Anyone facing procedures and operations we wish you well.

TIP:- Did you know if you have a concession card you can apply to Australian post for concession stamps - With a free Australia Post Concession account, you'll pay just 60c per stamp, instead of $1.70. You can buy up to 75 stamps per year, in booklets of 5 for $3. That's a bargain.

Just get the form from your local post office or on- line - fill it out (It's easy) and hand it back over the counter.

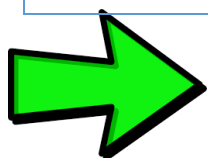

Let's face it we need to save every penny we can these days. (from Michelle)
