PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hello All: Well half of the year has gone already. I cannot believe how fast the weeks go by. I suppose it has a lot to do with keeping busy. Ernie and I treasure a day that we do not have an appointment, usually medical or a commitment to an outing. Not that we don't enjoy an outing. This makes me think of our Probus Outings and Dineouts. They can be informative, like last months trip to the Australian Jazz Museum. The volunteers who run this were so enthusiastic you felt happy to be there. We also had a good tour, Jazz performance and a nice lunch. What more could you want. So give an Outing or Dineout a go. You won't regret it. Sandy Brigham President

BENDIGO BANK - COMMUNITY BANK MALVERN EAST

We have been advised by Ruth Hall that we have received a grant, from the Bendigo Bank - Community Bank. We thank Ruth and the Bank, and we wish to advise you that Ruth will be at our club meeting on Wednesday to present the cheque.

MAREE SPEAKERS CORNER 2026

July: "Crime with a Twist of History". Laraine Stephens is a crime writer who has published several books including the Reggie da Costa Mysteries. The setting for these is in the Melbourne of the early twentieth century, in the aftermath of the Great War and during the heady days of the 1920's, when gangs, sly grog and gambling dens inhabited the back streets of Melbourne.

August: Donna Campisi from Cottage by the Sea, a not-for-profit organisation which supports many disadvantaged children in Victoria. Based in Queenscliff, this cottage is where children can go for fun, inspiration and opportunities provided through camp programs.

DINNER AND DANCE

Dawn has another Mystery Train Trip. These are always lots of fun. Friday 21st of August meet at the Southern Cross Station at 11am upstairs. One of the best parts of the trips is having Gary Weeks try and guess where we are going. I think he calls out every station on the line we are on. This is a Pay as you go. Come join us all for a great day out.

MALVERN THEATRE

MISERY by William Goldman

CODE 67 $27.50

MALVERN THEATRE SATURDAY 4TH JULY 2PM

Based on the Stephen King novel, Misery is a tense psychological thriller exploring fandom and the line between obsession and madness. Paul Sheldon, successful romance writer, and creator of the beloved character Misery Chastain, drives off the road during a snowstorm in the Colorado Mountains. He wakens in the home of his "number one fan", Annie, who vows to help him recuperate. Paul slowly realizes that her obsession with his work is far from benign.
