Strolling with a purpose. Organiser John Higgins, 83794466

Stroll 107 Report. While it was cold, grey and, at the end of our stroll, a trifle damp, 9 Swappers were entranced by our Aboriginal guide, Jamie, who led us along the Warriparinga Cultural Walk. He provided us with much information about the area's past and present, its vegetation and wild life. He rounded off a splendid 1.5 hours by explaining the making of a didgeridoo which he then played.
