Looking forward towards next year.

We encourage all members to give serious thought to ways in which they can support the club. In particular, please consider whether you can put yourself forward to take on one of the positions on the committee for next year. If you want further information about what is involved with any of the positions, please have a chat with the incumbent whose phone number is shown in the table above. Or perhaps you may simply ring President Jan or Secretary Andrew to offer your services.

Cash/Cheque Payments at a Meeting

If making cash/cheque payments at a GOPC Meeting, please PRINT your name/s, the amount enclosed and the reason for the payment on the front of an envelope and seal the envelope once the cash/cheque is inserted. It is obviously a good idea to prepare your payment envelope before the meeting but in case you forget, blank envelopes will be available for you to fill out during the meeting. However please try to bring the correct cash amount. Cheques may be made out to either cash or the Glen Osmond Probus Club Inc.

Deposit the envelope with the appropriate Officer/Assistant during the Morning Tea Break. The Officer/Assistant will open the envelopes after the meeting and record your payment accordingly.

Note: If making more than one payment, please use a different envelope for each purpose.
