From the President

It is always sad when we have to begin a meeting with a farewell.

Stefan Adam Pikusa died on April 15, 2021. He was a member of Glen Osmond Probuc Club for 25 years but resigned due to ill health. Stefan taught in the Faculty of Architecture at the University of Adelaide where he was renowned for his interest in history and historic buildings from the Adelaide perspective. He was the author of several books, his most well-known was The Adelaide House. He is survived by his wife, Mary and three sons. Vale Stefan.

Recently, our club received an invitation to attend The Adelaide Retirement Village & Resort Expo on May 16 and 17 from 10 am to 3pm at the Glenelg Golf Club. For anyone who is interested their number is 0412233742 or email dan@dorsal.com.au

To promote our club, flyers are now available on the table during morning tea. Please take some for your friends and neighbours. There are also hard copies of The Newsletter and The Activities Calendar. Information on upcoming events is always available in the Newsletter.

It seems a while ago that some of us enjoyed Pizza in the Park and we hope to repeat this very enjoyable afternoon. Parking is easy and many of us will gladly assist those who need a little extra help.

Next month is GOPC's 39th birthday, a time to celebrate.

A pertinent quote from Hayden's sergeant:

"If you haven't got a ticket, you can't get on the bus!"

President
