From the President

This month our club celebrated its 39th birthday as it was founded in June, 1982. Over the years the club has seen many changes from its inception as an all male club to welcoming female members in 2013/2014.

I would like to trial something new on a more casual basis. Beginning on Tuesday, June 15 Coffee and a Chat mornings at La Cucina at Burnside Village at 10am. This will occur on the second Tuesday of every month. It would also be a good opportunity to bring a friend and swap a book.

There is also a free Information Session at Burnside Library this week entitled Be Scam Safe on Thursday, June 10 at 10:30 to 11:30 am. A speaker from the Catalyst Foundation will cover types of scams.

As there are quite a few outings scheduled for June, July and August I would be grateful if members could complete the Registration for Outings Form and return it at your earliest convenience. If you are unable to print or download the form I will have additional hard copies at the next meeting.

Many thanks to Kim Perry for stepping in as Secretary for the June meeting as Alan is recovering from pneumonia.

Our meeting was certainly enhanced by Geoff Bowles' fascinating life story and Sally Grundy's passionate talk on Migratory Shorebirds. A perfect Monday morning at Glen Osmond Probust Club.

Christine Lincoln
President
