From the President

Our Club is pressing on with activities despite Covid disruptions.

The continuation of our Club depends on regular additions of new members, preferably in the 60+ age group. I encourage members to bring friends along to meetings to give them an idea of what we offer.

Guests are very welcome to attend the next lunch at the Largs Pier Hotel on May 22nd.

Pleasingly we have a number of new members to induct at the next meeting. Keep them coming!

Cheers
Andrew

Christmas in July.

Monday 11th July at the Mount Osmond Golf Club commencing at 12.30pm.

This is $50 per person with a drink on arrival, choice of three main courses and two desserts.

I hope you will be able to join us.

(Please see Christine Lincoln at the May meeting to indicate your attendance and please remember to pay when you add your name to the list. If you are paying by electronic transfer please indicate that information on the envelope.)

Lunch at Largs!

It seems such a long time until July so I'm hoping many of you will join me for lunch at the Largs Pier Hotel, Largs Bay on Monday 23d May.

This is a casual lunch where members order their own food and drinks, and make their own way to the venue. I've eaten at the venue many times and have always enjoyed my meal. There is an additional seniors menu as well as daily specials.

If you've not been to this hotel before it is a lovely old building.

I realise many of you don't drive and we can organise car-pooling where necessary. Please add your name your name to the list and indicate if you would need a ride.

Short walks - Wednesdays: If interested contact Richard Duncan. richard-duncan@hotmail.com
