From the President

We enjoyed an excellent presentation by Neil Andrew at the February meeting, and look forward to hearing from Bob Moles at the next meeting, the AGM in March.

If you are able please make sure you attend the March meeting to welcome the new President and Committee for the 2023 year. They deserve your support.

You may like to peruse beforehand the attached Minutes from last year's Annual General Meeting.

Andrew McEwin

Next Meeting

The Annual General Meeting will be held 10.00am at the Beaumont Bowling Club on Monday 6th March 2023.

Speaker: Dr Robert Moles. Adjunct associate professor at Flinders University in the College of Law.

Topic: "Miscarriages of Justice in South Australia".

Member's Profile: To be determined

Morning Tea Roster: Marg Wagner Kim Perry

University Study

We have had an approach from Mahima Shah, a Masters student at the University of South Australia who is currently recruiting older participants (65yrs+) for his Masters project focusing on exercise and neuroplasticity.

Please refer to the attachments with this Newsletter for further information and contact Mahima directly if interested in participating in the study

Happy Birthday to our members who celebrate a birthday during January and February.

Activities

It was wonderful to see everyone at the first meeting of the year.

The only report I had was to say that the Christmas Luncheon at the Mount Osmond Golf Club was a most enjoyable time.

The activities committee will convene shortly and make some plans for this year. If there is an excursion you would like to suggest please do so.
