There was certainly a range of Grenaches from light-coloured softer ones to the usual darker varieties

The Penfolds was certainly the outstanding one and with 8 years bottle age.

The Domaine was typical of most of those from McLaren Vale (Blewett Sprigs being next door)

The d'Arenberg and Taylors were not far behind and what you would expect.

The last two were disappointing.

In 1970s New Zealand, young Brian is devastated by the loss of his mother and determined to stop his dad from marrying the woman he sees as her replacement. Convinced he can reach his mother through prayer and penance; Brian finds refuge at a run-down convent with three delightfully eccentric elderly nuns. But when he overhears plans to shut the convent down and split the sisters apart, sending the most vulnerable to a terrifying institution, Brian sparks an unlikely mission: escape to the Southern Alps to find a former nun-turned-lawyer who might just save them all. For Brian, it's more than a legal battle—
