Notes from the President

Hello everyone,

Here we are at the end of another calendar year in Probus with Christmas only days ahead. We were pleasantly reminded about this by the Kapiti Senior Singers who entertained us at our Christmas Morning Tea. Thank you, Kapiti Senior Singers, your show was much enjoyed by all. Thank you also to your Committee, who, as always, provided us with a delicious morning tea, also much enjoyed by all. Thank you.

Christmas is the time for families to get together to celebrate the season. To welcome family members and friends who we don't live close enough to see often, maybe even from overseas. Perhaps we could spare a moment to think of a neighbour or someone in the community who has no family or close friend to share Christmas with. Even just a drink and a piece of Christmas cake to show that they are not completely forgotten.

It only remains for me, on behalf of myself and your Committee, to wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Gary McElhinney – President
