President's Message

Christmas 2019 has arrived.

If you are going to be absent from a General Meeting please phone your apology to Natalie on 0419 120 236. For insurance purposes it is best for Natalie to get your apology directly from you rather than from another member. Submit your apology via another member as a last resort.

If you have not provided us with your profile for the newsletter yet, please give it a bit of thought. There are some of our members, that I know of, who would prefer not to submit a profile for the newsletter. Therefore, I would prefer not to have to ask members for their profiles. It has been mentioned at a couple of General Meetings, so please do not wait to be asked if you are willing to have yours published. Merv would appreciate it as a word document if possible, so that he can cut and paste. But please, do not make it too long as space in the newsletter is limited. Times New Roman font, size 12 is the best choice. Ideally your profile should fit on one page allowing space for a photo or two which you may wish to provide. Suggested word count of about 600 words.

Wishing all members a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Mary Mahaffy, Len Torrens, Val Coxon and Dorothy Bates: Our very special 90 years plus members cutting our 18th birthday cake:

Zaffarri's Kiwanda Café, Eagleby, was the meeting point for our informal lunch in November.

It was nice to welcome a potential new member Carol, into our Probus fold.

Although the menu is limited, there were enough choices for all who attended.

With 23 people in attendance we had 3 large round tables set away from the other diners, maybe they were going to be noisy, well we know that's not right when the Springwood Probus people come together sharing in the fun, friendship, food and lots of talk, making for a most relaxing and enjoyable few hours over lunch.

The chef and his staff along with the manager Dee did a wonderful job of looking after us with Dee taking a group photo for Zaffarri's H.O, so we are now on social media. Does this make us famous or just fabulous.

A big thank you to everyone who have participated and supported my different dine outs this past year. It means a lot to have the support and encourages me to start planning for 2020, where we kick off, with what has become our Annual Australia Day Barby.
