

KANGAROO ISLAND TRIP

A long weekend on Kangaroo Island for a reasonable price was the offer and 6 of us took it up. We flew to Adelaide and met up with 41 other Probians from Sydney and Melbourne Clubs. We boarded the coach for the drive down to Victor Harbour for lunch. Next stop Cape Jervis, and the ferry across to the Island. We stayed at the Aurora Ozone Hotel in Kingscote. We loved the big bedrooms. The hotel did a great job providing 48 of us with our evening meals and a buffet breakfast for the stay. On Saturday, our driver Wayne, drove us across the Island to Flinders Chase National Park. We went to Remarkable Rocks and Admirals Arch, where fur seals frolicked in rock pools by the arch. Then it was back on the bus for Seal Bay Conservation Park. We walked down the zig zagging boardwalk to check out the snoozing Sea Lions on the Beach. On Sunday, we visited Clifford's Honey Farm, had a tour and then lunch at the Emu Ridge Eucalyptus Distillery. The last stop for the day was at Kangaroo Island Wildlife Park to see the Raptor Domain Birds of Prey Show. All pretty good and memorable places. Monday morning it was back to the ferry and a rough old sea crossing. Back on the mainland we drove through McLaren Vale for lunch at the Wirra Wirra Winery. The tour delivered everything they promised - no disappointments - we were all glad we went!
