Sit back, relax and refuel at the Village Cafe.

Brian and Diane have done reconnaissance early in June and we are amazed at the changes in Whiteman Park since last we went with Gerardine as a group with Villa for morning tea.

- Take the free tram down to Mussell Pool, it's a lovely trip down through the banksia woodlands and open playing grounds or otherwise you can take a drive to Mussel Pool to look at some of the transport memorabilia on display in the picnic grounds.
- From the Motor Museum, it's just a short stroll to the Café, where you can grab a bite to eat, overlooking the tram line that runs through the centre of the Village.

MOVIES: Pamela and I are taking on Movies that are suggested through PSPL Active Retirees on line production, viewing at Whitfords Event Theatre on selected Wednesdays 10.30am, do feel welcome to join us. Ill send an email with details when they come available.

WELFARE - Tricia reported: Alie has been very sick with a chest infection. I called Anne Chapple she didn't get any info from the club so, ACTION that's why she missed meetings. I told her when the next meeting is and that it's the Birthday meeting.

I called Joy twice and left a message each time .

I called Marilyn she is still in a lot of pain but will try to come to the next meeting. She was so grateful to hear from me! - Diane had seen and spoken to her in the shopping centre.

I went to see Barry and Heather they hope to be at the next meeting.

Scam awareness – a little address book suggested to keep passwords.

HOSPITALITY:

We are expecting all members to bring a small plate of food to grace our morning tea table this meeting. Thank you all in anticipation. It is great that members think to bring food to our table each month and the people who volunteer each week to 'feed us' are truly appreciated, THANK YOU!! Our morning tea time is a major part of the fellowship of Probus.

CHANGES:

We will be changing the Kallaroo Standing Orders along with the Constitution (which you all have been advised of) at this coming meeting. Below is the Standing Order to be added to our document.
