The Combined Probus Club of Glen Eden

February 2025 Newsletter

Club Registration Number 59160

President - Joan Goddard

Greetings to you all. It was wonderful to be at our January Morning Tea and see everyone again. I know I certainly missed all of you over the Christmas break.

We are looking forward to an interesting new year with a change of club rooms and quite a lot of interesting and exciting speakers and trips.

Our AGM next month will bring some new people on the committee and some fresh ideas for us to work with.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Till next time Joan

Picnic Day at Tui Glen Reserve

2 Claude Brooks Drive, Henderson

Meeting up at Tui Glen Reserve carpark from 10 am onwards. Access to the carpark is from Claude Brooks Drive.

Please bring along your own food and drink, a sun hat and sunscreen, chair or a rug to sit on, a sun umbrella if you have one. We will probably be sitting under shade anyway.

There are toilets inside the Reserve.

Hopefully it will be a fine and sunny day!

The picnic will need to be postponed if the weather is bad.

Trip Report

Chelsea Sugar Refinery Tour

Recently, we headed off to Chelsea Sugar Refinery. The majority of us opted for the refinery tour.

Those of us, including myself, who weren't up to so much exercise took the shorter tour which was a train ride around the perimeter of the refinery. We stopped off at a very large shed near the wharf where large mountains of raw sugar were stored waiting for processing into various types of refined and liquid sugars. The whole area had the wonderful smell of brown sugar! Tasting was off limits as unprocessed sugar rots teeth very quickly. The unprocessed sugar is imported mainly from Australia (Queensland) but is also sourced from Thailand, Malaysia, the US and Brazil.

To top off the tours, we all enjoyed a very nice Devonshire Tea at Chelsea Bay café.
