Birds of Lord Howe Island

Two dates in 2027!

Lord Howe Island

The Ultimate Bird-Watching Destination

Almost 170 species of sea and land birds live on or visit the island group, and hundreds of thousands nest there each year.

Lord Howe Island is a true birdwatcher's paradise, where spectacular scenery is matched by extraordinary birdlife. Home to 45 species of land birds and 52 species of seabirds, the island offers wonderful opportunities to see birds in their natural habitat. Wander through lush forests, along peaceful beaches and around dramatic coastal landscapes, keeping watch for the island's diverse feathered residents.

This 7-day Lord Howe Island tour gives travellers time to appreciate this remarkable natural environment, alongside island touring, nature walks, a North Bay turtle and nature experience, coral viewing and time to simply relax and explore.
