President's Report

Sadly we note the death of Rod Goode, a founding member of the club and an enthusiastic supporter of Glen Iris Probus. On behalf of all members we send loving thoughts and caring wishes to Joan, Rod's wife, and a fellow member of the club.

Our book group will be presenting a 10 minute talk on the joys of their literary forays for the day's meeting. Next year we are hoping to involve all our special groups in 10 minute presentations.

Our November meeting is being sponsored by the Stonnington Council and the talk organised by Victoria police. Micheal O'Brien - a current serving police officer - will be speaking on personal safety. Council will be promoting the talk to the general public to increase attendees and to promote our group. Please welcome any new faces on the day.

I would also like to acknowledge the Community Grant that we received from the City of Stonnington and the importance of that to support our club activities during the 2026/2027 financial year. Thanks to our Treasurer Ian Kinder for his work on getting the Grant on our behalf.

My last reminder for the special Christmas December meeting to be held at Riversdale Golf Club on Friday 4 December. Money to be paid at the October meeting.

I wish everyone the best over the next month. I will miss the footy season, go Lions, but I know many of you are passionate about the Spring Racing Carnival.

Peter

Guest Speaker Ken Bennett

Ken could, like other members, be a 10 minute speaker. However, those who know him appreciate that 10 minutes is not sufficient for Ken to ramble on about his multi-facetted life. He will give us an insight into his days in radio, and some of the personalities he met along the way.

BOOK CLUB:

How long should you give a book you are not enjoying? Is it okay to ditch a slow burn? Every reader has a different strategy—whether it is three chapters, 50 pages, or 100 pages. Yet, all readers agree on one thing: it is completely fine to move on when a book fails to interest you. Reading is meant to be a pleasure, not a chore. Put the book down and find a better choice.
